The Patriot Records Project is working to find and identify Revolutionary War patriots in hard to search collections to make them more accessible than ever. The project began with the Continental Loan Books of Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, and New York. The Continental Loan Books contain the names of men, women, and businesses who helped to finance the War for Independence. We are indexing the South Carolina Audited Accounts, North Carolina Audited Records and many, many more collections.

The Patriot Records Project index is available as part of the DAR Genealogy Research System (GRS). The records span over 75 years, starting at the very beginning of the Revolutionary War through the last petitions for remuneration.

The index is being made possible by DAR member volunteers. All records are indexed twice, and any names that do not match are fixed by another third-party volunteer.

Sign up by going to the Patriot Records Project Committee Webpage on the DAR Members' website at www.dar.org/members and click on volunteer now. Once signed up, you will receive updates as new records are available for indexing.
